History of Education – THED

Taylor and Francis acquired the journal History of Education (THED) in 2009, we would like to clarify the institutional and membership rates, which are both available through Taylor and Francis.

History of Education Society (HES) Membership (THEMPF)

There are four rates of HES membership, all of which receive membership and a newsletter called 'History of Education Researcher' from the Society (Please note this membership does not include a journal).

The 2010 rate relevant to your customers would be:

Libraries: GBPE19

This rate does not give Libraries access to any journal or online access to any product. To get access to History of Education (the academic journal), libraries MUST subscribe at the full institutional subscription rate through THED.

History of Education Society (HES) Membership, Including personal subscription (INDIVIDUALS ONLY)

There are three rates of membership, which include membership and a Personal Print Subscription to the History of Education journal (THED). These rates are only available to individuals and not libraries. (Please note a personal subscription only includes a print subscription and not online access).

History of Education (THEDPF) – Journal Subscription

This is a journal where Libraries can subscribe to either institutional online and print or online only subscriptions.

2010 rates are as follows:

Journal Code: THED

Institutional print and online: USD$1698/ GBPE1024/ EUR€1353

Institutional online only: USD$1614/ GBPE973/ EUR€1285
